VILLIFICATION
NOT AN ARGUMENT.

Since the opening of the prohibition campaign in Alexandria we have heard four speakers discuss the affirmative side of the issue and all of them have given up a considerable portion of their address to the abuse of persons who will vote against State-wide prohibition in the coming elec- tion. The speaker at the Opera House last night was not an exception and he classed the anti-prohibitionists as skinflints, who secure additional revenue for property used for saloon purpose, murderers, thieves and white slaves. From his remarks one would judge that the Statewide- ers have absorbed all the visible supply of moral and civic virtue in the community and that only the lowest class of citizens are arraigned on the other side.

We had expected to hear something different from the speaker of last evening as he came with the reputation of being a "logical" speaker and the very flower of the flock that receive big salaries for handling the political destinies of the Anti-Saloon League. But he, like the lesser lights of his calling, has evidently found that it is easier to use intemperate language that catches the crowd than it is to present solid facts that appeal to reason instead of to sentiment.

The question at issue with us—Will Alexandria be benefited by the pas- sage of the State-wide prohibition act?—must be answered by an ap- peal to reason, not by villification, not by calling hard names, and cer- tainly not by assuming that every- one who votes No is necessarily actuated by vile motives, and is bribed by those who are engaged in the liquor business.

ROOSEVELT OUT
AT PROPER TIME.

The New York World says:
"Poor Roosevelt! He must be des- perate indeed if he thinks he can make political headway at this time by his demagogic sneers at President Wilson's foreign policy."

"Since the madness of military au- thority plunged Europe into the most staggering war of all history, most Americans are profoundly grateful that Woodrow Wilson is president and that Theodore Roosevelt is not. With Mr. Wilson as President everybody knows that the United States can avoid being drawn into this suicidal conflict. If Mr. Roosevelt were Pres- ident, the United States would be sit- ting on a powder barrel, waiting for the inevitable spark. In fact, Mr. Roosevelt is about the last person in the country whom any sane American would wish to see in the Presidency in a crisis like this, which calls for a cool head and steady nerves, common sense, and clear brain."

"That Mr. Roosevelt should have ventured to assail Mr. Wilson's pa- triotism indicates clearly enough that he has lost touch with popular senti- ment. He fails to appreciate the tre- mendous change in public opinion which has come about since the Kaiser's declaration of war. The American people were never less in a mood for big-stick bluff and bluster, and they never had a lower opinion of war-lord politics."

"ON TO BERLIN" RUSSIAN CRY
Czar Contemplates Attack Upon
Prussian Capital in Three Weeks.

St. Petersburg, via Rome, Aug- ust 28.—That the plans of the Russian army contemplate an attack on Berlin within three weeks is of- ficially admitted. At the same time it was stated that not only has the Russian mobilization been completed but that 8,000,000 men are now un- der arms.

The troops have been divided into four armies of 2,000,000 each. These armies are being sent into the field from the inland mobilization centres to operate one behind the other, the armies in the rear filling the gaps in the ranks of those in front after each general engage- ment.

Because of the enormous forces that will be in the field it is re- ported to be the general plan of the Russian offensive not to try to take the German chain of main forts by storm. Instead the Russians will attempt to isolate each of them, leaving a large enough force at every point to keep the garrisons bottled up and also to prevent any attacks on their flanks or their own lines of communication.

The main Russian advance, it is expected, will approach Posen from the south, crossing the south bend of the Warta river some miles from the Russian frontier, and then move against Posen between the Oder and Warta rivers.

WILL POSTPONE CORONATION.

Cardinals Decide to Hold Ceremonies
After War.

Rome, August 28.—The coronation of the newly-elected Pope will not take place until after the European war is over. This was decided at a congregation of fifty cardinals in the Vatican yesterday.

Supporters of Cardinal Dominic Ferrata express belief that his pros- pects for election to the papacy at the forthcoming conclave to succeed Pope Pius X have been strengthened by the declaration of Cardinal Diomedeo Falconio to be a candidate.

There are strong evidences that po- litical currents are at work under the surface. The press declares that a strong combination is being formed among the foreign cardinals and the belief holds that the sacred college is more divided than usual.

The conclave will be convened on Monday, notwithstanding the fact that all of the foreign cardinals will not have arrived here by that time.

CORNS QUIT, PAINS
STOP, WITH "GETS-IT."

Quit Plasters, Salves and What-Not
After using "Gets-It" once you will never again have occasion for asking, "What can I do to get rid of my corns," "Gets-It" is the first sure, certain corn-ender ever known.

If you have tried other things by the score and will now try "GETS-
IT" you will realize this glorious fact.

Why "Suffer-Yet" With Corns? Use
"GETS-IT."
They'll Vanish!

You probably are tired sticking on tape that won't stay stuck, plas- ters that shift themselves right on- to your corn, contraptions that make a bundle of your toe and press right down on the corn. Put two drops of "GETS-IT" on that corn in two seconds. The corn is then doomed as sure as night follows day. The corn shrivels. There's no pain, no fuss. If you think this sounds too good to be true try it tonight on any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists
